THE Hongkong Telegraph.

HONGKONG, 2ND AUGUST, 1881.

PERSONAL.

We regret to have been at last compelled, by a systematic persecution, which has never ceased from the day on which the circulars announcing the existence of a project to establish the Hongkong Telegraph were first issued, up to the present time, to publicly lay before our friends and supporters, in self defence, the details of what has every appearance of being a detestable conspiracy, organised and carried out with unscrupulous persistency by an interested clique for the apparent purpose of injuring the prospects of this journal.
It is with the utmost reluctance, after most mature deliberation, and after all other means of avoiding a public scandal have failed, that we have accepted, as the only alternative left us, our opponent's unspoken challenge of guerre à outrance.
Firm believers in the proverb that patience is the surest antidote against calumny, we have hoped against hope that the precious confederacy, whose conduct we are now to place before the blazing sun of public opinion, would have gradually got tired of a hopeless task, and left us alone to work out our mission, whatever that may be, without subjecting us to further hostile, and underhand interference, and opposition. We cannot say that we have found any solace during our time of trial in Rousseau's well-known saying that la patience est amère, mais son fruit est doux; but having resolved to bear in silence the very worst that could be said and done against us, we chafed at the bit which galled us, and waited and watched.

The world is naturally censorious, and it has been practically proved times out of number that while one half of that class composing society takes a delight in detracting, the other half enjoys a sincere pleasure in believing all that detraction utters. It might, therefore, have been better, for our general interests, and doubtless would have saved us a vast amount of trouble, had we taken the bull by the horns, or the ass by the ears, whichever simile is most suitable, and treated him to a fair back fall at the very commencement. Still as no man can claim to be equal to the varied emergencies of life without experiencing a good share of its vicissitudes, we shall probably come out of the present ordeal, not much worse for our misplaced confidence in certain exceedingly frail specimens of a greatly maligned humanity.

The circulars announcing the intended publication of the Telegraph were circulated early in June. The proposed enterprise was not a new one by any means, as we had endeavored to start a periodical on similar lines some three years ago, and only failed through our inability to procure an efficient printer, and owing to a stress of other business. Having many years ago taken an active part in establishing and successfully running three different newspaper ventures in London, we had some practical knowledge of what was required to achieve success here, and laying our views before Messrs. De Souza & Co., who had just failed in conjunction with two other gentlemen, to float a periodical called Noon, we requested a tender for a stated number of copies daily of a newspaper of a certain size, for a period of six months. That tender was received, and for $150 per month, Messrs. De Souza & Co. offered to print the Hongkong Telegraph for a period of six and a half months, which offer we at once accepted, issued our circulars, and commenced canvassing for advertisements and making other preliminary arrangements. All went merry as a marriage bell until the evening of June 7th, when we received a note from our printers stating that a friend had advised them that if they undertook the contract on the terms arranged, or for less than $400 a month, they would be ruined.

They also enclosed the following letter which we have great delight in reproducing:—

4 Club Chambers,
June 7th, 1881.

J. J. de Souza, Esq.,
My dear Sir,

Agreeable to your request I have looked over the agreement which Mr. Fraser-Smith submits for your approval and signature, but not being sufficiently well acquainted with the details of your business I cannot form a fair estimate as to what will be the cost of providing the paper in question, but with the hope of getting you the business in question, I consulted with my friend Mr. G. M.
Bain, who read the agreement, and without the least hesitation said it would cost you at least $350 to $400 a month to carry out the agreement which you are asked to do for $150.

Under these circumstances you will doubtless point out to Mr. Fraser-Smith your inability to undertake the matter.

Yours faithfully,

HARRY WICKING.

Mr. Harry Wicking is a gentleman well known in Hongkong. For many years a shopman in a Queen's-road store, he attained some celebrity as factotum and adviser to the late Mr. Kwok Acheong, and afterwards acquired a wide spread fame as a zealous partisan of the now defunct Cosmopolitan Dock Company, of which institution he was facetiously styled the "Consulting Director." Lately he has added to his immense influence by the leading position he is said to have taken in the proposed opposition Sugar Refinery, and Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co.
(against whom the magnificent one has a special animus), and the shareholders of the China Sugar Refining Company, are reported to be in a dreadful funk at the probable results of opposition from such a dangerous character.

Mr. G. M. Bain is also an old resident of this favored island. Editor and proprietor of the China Mail, a prominent official of the Union Church, and a recently elected member of the Hongkong Club, he may be observed any morning between the hours of ten and twelve, gracefully planted on the Club steps, the observed of all observers. Of Mr. Bain's public career we will say nothing here. Readers of the Telegraph are already aware that, for all sufficient reasons, we have agreed to differ with his views on political matters, and there the matter ends for the present.

Mr. Wicking's letter commences with a lie, ends with one, and is one long continued mis-statement throughout. Mr. de Souza never requested Mr. Wicking to look over his agreement, never solicited his advice; but for reasons best known to himself, Mr. Wicking called on Mr. de Souza after business hours one evening for the express purpose of impudently prying into business which concerned him not, and the result of his visit was the above letter.
If a candid opinion on a newspaper contract were required, does it not seem strange that the proprietor of an opposition paper, whose interests were vitally imperilled by the existence of the Telegraph, should have been applied to? Does it not look remarkably like a got-up job, hatched by the fertile brain of the ubiquitous Wicking? If Mr. Wicking used Mr.
Bain's name without authority we humbly solicit the Editor of the China Mail's pardon for having brought his name into this discreditable business. But on the other hand, if the estimate is really and truly Mr. Bain's, that gentleman either is grossly ignorant of a business he pretends to understand, or he deliberately attempted to ruin the prospects of this paper.
The expense of printing the Hongkong Telegraph for the month of July, including extra copies, supplements, &c. amounted to $134.60, about one third of Mr. G. M.
Bain's friendly (?) and professional (?) estimate, and our books are open for the inspection of Mr. Bain, or any other gentlemen who cares to inspect them, Wicking alone excepted. The lion might be tolerated, the jackal never.

As our printers had formally estimated to undertake our work, and as we had formally accepted their tender, a few words from the barrister who was consulted had a good deal more effect than even Mr.
Wicking's second epistle, which we also have much pleasure in publishing. They say, a man lives in his literary labors and we sincerely trust this person may live in his. We had, we may state, threatened legal proceedings.

"Dear Souza,

If you have not signed any documents you cannot do anything, he wants you to do for $150, what will cost you fully $450, and you would be a fool to undertake it. He cannot do anything so let him threaten, I am too busy to call on you just now."
H. W."

We lost three days through this interference, and were otherwise hampered and inconvenienced, and put to considerable extra expense; however the Telegraph duly became un fait accompli, "all in spite of My Lord Cardinal."

The next move was a deliberate statement in the China Mail to the effect that the Governor had suborned our columns for the purpose of attacking his subordinates. We replied to this gross libel by a contradiction couched in no uncertain terms, and there it ended.

A few days more and a rumour, which we traced to the China Mail, was flying round that His Excellency was, for reasons of his own, a private subscriber to the Telegraph to the tune of 50 copies daily.
We simply denied the rumour, but gave a warning note that our patience was gradually getting exhausted.

Our leniency was misplaced, for within two or three days the last straw required to break the camel's back was forthcoming.
Our paper has been a gratifying, an almost unprecedented success. Desirous of making it the first paper in Hongkong from a typographical as well as from a literary point of view, we had entered into negotiations with Mr. James Beale, well known on the Daily Press staff for the past six years, and had almost satisfactorily arranged everything, when Mr. Beale to our utter astonishment informed us that, as Mr. Robert Smith the Sub Editor of the China Mail had publicly stated that the notices in the Telegraph were dummies, and that he could prove that the advertisements of Messrs. MacEwen, Frickel & Co., Messrs. Lane, Crawford & Co., Messrs.
Kelly & Walsh, and others were inserted for six months free of charge, he could not entertain my proposals until Mr. Smith's assertions were proved to be devoid of truth. Apart from the loss of the services of an experienced journalist and manager, it will be apparent to our readers how injurious such a statement as the above would prove to the general interests of the paper, if left uncontradicted. Advertisers would naturally fight shy of a paper where a free list was in existence, and we are in a position to prove that the statements of the sub-editor of the Mail have already prejudicially affected our best interests.
That of course was what was intended.
Wishing to avoid a public scandal if possible, we wrote to Mr. Smith, requesting his authority for his assertions, and if he had no authority desiring to know his motives for giving publicity to a scandalous falsehood likely to injure the prospects of this paper. No reply was received, although Mr. Smith privately informed our representative that he considered his communication to Mr. Beale privileged, and that before doing anything, he would consult Mr. George Murray Bain. We presume he has done so, and acted on his advice, otherwise he would hardly have failed to reply to or acknowledge the receipt of a perfectly polite query.

Now for results. This public exposé of what we have been called upon to submit to, is our only remedy. We might sue Mr. Robert Smith for his slanderous assertions and probably would gain a verdict; but with what result? The sub-editor of the China Mail is avowedly not worth powder and shot, so in this matter we can only leave him to crawl in the dust at his superior's feet, an object of contempt to all right thinking men.

We have lived in many lands, and under various auspices, but we have seen more of the contemptible side of human nature during the past six weeks than we ever previously experienced. It has been said that there are many persons who are esteemed only because they are not known.
Their real dispositions are masked so successfully as to be valued and admired for qualities which they never possessed.
We have to our cost proved the truth of this.

Political opinions and social ideas and views must differ; and a good tempered, honest guerilla warfare between rival newspapers is legitimate and commendable enough, and frequently leads to beneficial results. But when a greedy, jealous disposition, denying to a supposed rival, in a perfectly free colony, the indisputable right which every man possesses to earn his bread in the manner he thinks best, acts unfairly, the voice of public opinion should be heard. We deny the right of the China Mail to monopolise all newspaper rights and privileges in this colony.
We decline to be put down by the too transparent artifices of Mr. Harry Wicking, Mr. George Murray Bain, and Mr. Robert Smith.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Until further notice the Band of The Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers will play (weather permitting), in the Gardens every Friday at 5.30 p.m. The following will be the programme for Friday next:—

March "Silver Threads among } Riviero. the gold" Sir J. Benedict.
Overture "The Octoroon" Gounod.
Chorus "Faust" Gounod.
Valse "Die Margeritern" Labitzky.
Selection "Ruy Blas" Glover.
Valse "Sirenes" Waldteufel.

A mail is announced to leave Singapore for Bangkok this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

From latest telegrams we are glad to hear that the Land Bill has safely passed through the House of Commons, much enthusiasm being exhibited at the later stages.

The Irish Land Bill has been read in the House of Lords for the first time. Trouble may be anticipated in the course of the second reading.

According to telegrams dated London July 30th, affairs in the north of Africa are becoming more critical every day.
We announced in our issue of 29th ultra that the French were bombarding Cubes, and we now learn that they have captured and occupied that town.

The expected interference with the movements of the French in Africa has come at last, not from Italy, but from Great Britain.

We shall probably hear nothing more about the proposal that France should take Tunis, and permit Italy to occupy Tripoli! Earl Granville has spoken, and in no uncertain terms.
France is warned against the dangers of meddling in Tripoli, and is plainly informed that England cannot tolerate interference of any kind. As the republic is not quite prepared to face England, Italy, and Turkey on the field of battle, M. St. Hilaire, the French Minister for Foreign Affairs has formally disclaimed any such designs.

The late Hoppe of Canton is expected to arrive in Hongkong to-day or to-morrow, and we understand he will remain for a few days as the guest of Governor Hennessy at Government House.

The Hoppe leaves for Shanghai by the China Merchants' steamer Uwai-guon, and after paying a visit to the Viceroy of Nanking, he proceeds to Peking to render an account of his five years' stewardship of the Canton Customs.

The new Governor of Fokien and Formosa, passed through Hongkong waters last week in a gun-vessel specially sent for him from Foochow.

Tsén did not favour the island with a visit (unless he landed incognito), which he probably did as we observed the gun-vessels remained some time in the harbour.

The Chinese report that this official, since his connection with the Margary affair, has never been reconciled to foreigners, and it would seem that if his administration is to be successful at Foochow, he will have to overcome his prejudices in this respect, for the duties of his new post will necessarily bring him into constant contact with foreigners.

The new Governor of Foochow has gained his official experience almost entirely in the remote provinces of Kweichow and Yunnan, and the change from these comparatively wild regions to an active foreign treaty port like Foochow, may prove too much for the infatuated old immobile.

Inland Lot No. 734, situated at Bowrington, was put up to public auction yesterday afternoon by Mr.
E. Bowdler, Acting Surveyor General, at an upset price of $2,500. The lot contains 14,400 square feet, and may be considered a useful site for Kerosine godowns, for which purpose we believe it is intended to be utilised. However, there was no competition, and Mr.
Davis offering $25 in advance of the upset price, it was knocked down to that gentleman for $2,525.

There will be a meeting of Zetland Lodge No. 525, this evening at nine o'clock precisely. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to attend.

Among the passengers arrived by the steamship Verona this morning, we note the name of Mah Taotai, one of the Secretaries to His Excellency Li Hung Chang, Viceroy of Chihli. Mah Taotai intends leaving here for Calcutta by an early opportunity, on a special mission to the Marquis of Ripon, Governor General of India.

The Hochung-Lapwing case, arising out of the recent collision between these vessels, which has engaged the attention of H. B. M.'s Supreme Court for China and Japan at Shanghai for ten days, was brought to a conclusion on the 28th ultimo.

The presiding judge was the Acting Chief Justice Mr. R. A. Mowat, and the assessors were Captain Ashdown of the steamer Verona, and Captain Morgan of the steamer Flintshire.

After a lengthy summing up by His Lordship, both petitions were dismissed and no order was made as to costs, beyond each party paying one half of the Assessor's fees.

We learn from the Agents (Messrs.
Jardine, Matheson & Co.) that the s.s.
Gleniffer left Singapore to-day for this port.

From Shanghai files received this morning by the steamer Verona, we note the continuation of the Coroner's Inquest on the body of the late Commander W. G. Scott of H.M.S. Lapwing. The following was the unanimous finding of the jury.—Deceased died by his own hand when in a state of temporary insanity, induced by intense nervous excitement, caused by anxiety in connection with the trial of the Hochung and Lapwing collision case.

H.B.M.'s gunboat Foxhound returned to this port to-day from a cruise amongst the Chusan Islands, since the 21st instant, she having gone out in search of the shipwrecked crew of the Aberdonian, which was lost in the typhoon of the 16th instant (July). We regret to hear that the Foxhound found no trace of either the ship or crew.— Shanghai Mercury.

The American ship Astoria, comes out of the Comopolitan Dock, and the German barque Hindoo and the steamer Heron will undock at Kowloon, this afternoon. At the Patent Slip the German barque Flembury will give place to the Siamese barque Fortune.

With regard to the Hochung-Lapwing collision case, we learn that the plaintiffs in the original suit and the defendants in the cross action have determined to appeal to the Privy Council; and leave to appeal will be immediately applied for in the Supreme Court here. To-day (29th July), two of the foremost leaders of the Admiralty bar, at home, have been retained by telegram on behalf of the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company.— Shanghai Courier.

Among the passengers leaving for the North by the s.s. Chinkiang this afternoon, we observe the name of Mr. James G. Liddell, the respected Superintendent of the Kowloon Docks, who, after 16 years of continuous service in the employ of the Hongkong & Whampoa Dock Company, Limited, has been compelled, in consequence of recent ill health, to take a well earned holiday. There are few men in this Colony who have worked so hard as Mr. Liddell, and it says a great deal for the strength of his constitution, that during the long period of 16 years he has never required, until now, a single holiday. We sincerely wish Mr. Liddell a pleasant trip, and trust the short sea voyage and change of climate will soon restore him to his usual good health. He will be greatly missed at Kowloon, where he is deservedly popular with all classes.

For the second year in succession that good horse Teviotdale has won the Ascot Stakes for Mr. Robert Jardine. Last year it will be remembered, the handsome son of Tynedale and Performer, after running third best in the Derby, started a very hot favorite at Ascot, and won in a common canter.
He was greatly fancied in some quarters for the St. Leger, but going amiss during the summer, he never could be brought back to his best form, and ran badly at Doncaster and Newmarket.
Weighted for this year's Ascot Stakes at 8 to 2 lbs, Teviotdale had an influential following, and started third favorite at 5 to 1 against. The race was a very good one, the bearer of the "dark blue, silver braid" taking the lead at the distance where he appeared to be winning easily; but Retreat, the property of Lord Bradford, after a desperate struggle managed to get alongside, and cannoning against Mr.

Jardine's horse knocked him completely out of his stride, and passed the winning post a length in front. An objection to Retreat on the ground of a cannon was at once laid, and the Stewards after investigation, disqualified Lord Bradford's representative, and awarded the race to Teriodale.

The following notifications and appointments appear in the Government Gazette of last Saturday:—

The Secretary of State for the Colonies has been pleased to extend for six months the leave of absence granted to the Honourable W. H. Marsh, C.M.G., Colonial Secretary and Auditor General. The Honourable Frederick Stewart having resigned the post of Acting Colonial Secretary and taken up, from this date, his duties as Police Magistrate, to which office he was gazetted by Notification No. 178 of 19th May, 1881, the Governor has made the following appointments:—

The Honourable Malcolm Struan Tommochy (who has been officiating as Acting Police Magistrate and Acting Colonial Treasurer), to be Acting Colonial Secretary and Acting Auditor General during the further absence on leave of the Colonial Secretary. The Honourable Walter Meredith Deane (Captain Superintendent of Police), to be Acting Colonial Treasurer. Mr. George Hayward, Warden of the Hongkong Gaol, to be Acting Superintendent, and Mr. William Stanton, Acting Inspector of Police, to be Acting Warden of the Hongkong Gaol. His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint, as a temporary and provisional measure, Surgeon-Major J. Murray, A.M.D., to be Acting Superintendent of the Civil Hospital, vice Dr. C. J. Wharry, absent on leave. The resignation of Mr. H. F. Gibbons of his office of Registrar of the Supreme Court of Hongkong, has been accepted; the resignation to date from the 1st of March, 1881.

GOVERNOR SIR JOHN POPE HENNESSY, K.C.M.G.

To the Right Honorable

THE EARL OF KIMBERLEY.

Government House,

7th March, 1881.

My Lord,—With reference to my Despatch No. 17, of the 1st March, 1881, enclosing Bishop Burdon's appeal for a donation of $1,000 to the Hongkong Public School, I have the honor to lay before your Lordship a copy of a letter, I observe in the local papers from the Bishop Burdon thanking Mr. Bellios for a donation of $2,000 towards the support of the school.

2.—Bishop Burdon is right in saying that it is not the first time Mr. Bellios has come forward to assist the Educational Work of Hongkong. In 1879, he generously endowed certain scholarships at the Central School and St. Joseph's College, and a scholarship for Medical training of the Hongkong Chinese. I have the honor to lay before Your Lordship some printed papers on this subject.

Indeed no individual in the history of this Colony, has done so much for the interests of education here as Mr. Bellios.

I have, etc.,

(Signed) J. POPE HENNESSY.

The Right Honorable

To Governor

SIR JOHN POPE HENNESSY,

K.C.M.G.

Downing Street,

10th May, 1881.

Sir,—I have received your Despatch No. 22, of the 7th of March, with enclosures, informing me of the donation of $2,000 to the Hongkong Public School, by Mr. Bellios.

2.—You remind me that this is not the first time that this gentleman has come forward in support of the Educational Work of the Colony; and I notice with much pleasure the assistance which he has now so generously given to the Public School.

I have, etc.,

(Signed) KIMBERLEY.

RESULT OF FLATTERY.

An unsuccessful lover was asked by what means he lost his fair. "Alas!" cried he, "I flattered her until she got too proud to speak to me."

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by Correspondents.]

To the Editor of

"THE HONGKONG TELEGRAPH."

Sir,—I am tired both of hearing and reading about the pros and cons of the proposed Tramway scheme, and am at a loss to see how the gentlemen interested in it, who appear to me to be experts and far-sighted sort of fellows, could fail to consult the most essential things without which there could be no success.

Did they consult Feng-Shui?

Yours faithfully,

GIPLY.

LATEST COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

Tuesday, August 2nd, 1881.

One o'clock P.M.

Another day drawn blank on the Stock Exchange. Brokers and dealers alike appear to have been unable to shake off the results of the Bank Holiday, and so business has been at a stand still. The only thing worth referring to is the gradual and unaccountable depreciation of the Dock Company's stock. Slowly but surely the shares have fallen from 60 per cent premium until they are now freely offered at 55 without finding buyers; and no attempt whatever has been made to stem the torrent. It is no secret that (although owing to the small number of ships in the Harbour docking business is rather slack), the amount of work at present in hand is indicative of a very prosperous half-year; and we can therefore attribute the decline of the shares in public estimation to an opinion which seems to have gained ground, that the dividend for the last half year will be much smaller than was at first anticipated. Whether this be true or not, the fact cannot be disguised that Docks are at present in such a very unsatisfactory condition on the Share Market, that a still greater decline may be anticipated. Banks are firm at 116, but not a blow has been struck since we last wrote, and the whole of the appended quotations must be regarded as merely of a nominal character.

The Corinthian Canal.

French enterprise promises to undertake the accomplishment of a third great engineering feat in cutting a canal through the Isthmus of Corinth, which, both in ancient and modern times, has formed an obstacle in the way of commerce between the Adriatic and the Aegean. General Turr, a well-known French geographer, has received a concession from the Greek Government to carry out this design, and M. de Lesseps has promised his sympathy and such assistance as can be spared by one whose attention is monopolized by the more difficult and extensive scheme of Panama. When it is remembered how obvious the improvement effected by such a canal must at all ages have been to those enterprising peoples whose direct concern has been, and still is the trade between the Adriatic and the Aegean and Black Seas, the only matter of surprise is that the operation has been so long deferred. When the power of Corinth was at its prime, it was the one drawback to its happiness, the single element of weakness in its prosperity, that it was compelled to have two separate harbours, one for the Gulf, and the other for the Aegean. With the view of mitigating, as far as possible, the inconveniences that arose from this circumstance, the Corinthians constructed across the isthmus a polished roadway, over which vessels could easily be hauled, and from the purpose with which it was built, it was called the Dioleos. After Corinth was destroyed by the Roman general Mummius (B.C. 146), and restored by Julius Caesar, the Emperor Nero bestowed some notice on this once favoured city, and devoted his attention to the question of cutting a canal through the isthmus. The ruins of the works which he caused to be erected are still shown. It is said that Nero wished himself to strike the first blow, or as we should now say lay the foundation stone; but a mutiny detained him in Rome. The work then languished, and either want of money, or the difficulty of piercing the hard rock led to the abandonment of the design. The Emperor Justinian, who was initiated at later periods by the Eastern Emperor Manuel, and also by the Venetians, erected fortifications across the isthmus; but no one attempted to renew Nero's abandoned canal. The fortifications did not avail to protect Corinth against either the Herulians or the Goths, whereas the canal would have added greatly to the welfare of that city and of the neighbouring peoples. It is appropriate and auspicious that the formation of a modern Kingdom of Hellas should be so speedily followed by an attempt to perform one of the few tasks neglected by antiquity. With the cutting of a canal through the isthmus more will have been done to restore the prosperity of Corinth than has been even so much as attempted since the age of the Caesars.—Times.
